

I have been a K-LOVE listener for ten years and hope to be able to listen for another fifty years. It is such a blessing to be comforted by God's word and music while the other mainstream stations are airing music that may not be appropriate for my son to hear. I truly appreciate the freedom of choice and hope that the LPFM service will not take K-LOVE off the air. Thank you.